(Victims Rights On Certain Violent Crimes)

Union County District Attorney (704) 698-3110

You have the right to be given information about the crime, how the criminal justice system works, the rights of victims, and the availability of services to victims. You have the right to be informed of and be present at court proceedings of the accused. You have the right to talk with the prosecutor and provide a Victim Impact Statement (VIS). You have the right to be heard at the sentencing of the accused and at other times as allowed by law. You have the right to receive restitution. You have the right to receive information about the conviction or final disposition and sentence of the accused. You have the right to present your views and concerns to the Governor or agency considering the release of the accused. A Victim's Responsibilities: If you wish to receive notification and to be informed of court proceedings you must notify your Victim Witness Assistant at the District Attorney's office of any change of address or telephone number you may have. What to do if threatened or intimidated: Threatening a witness is a crime in North Carolina. If you receive a threat from the defendant or anyone else, call the sheriff's office or contact the prosecutor or the Victim Witness Assistant in the District Attorney's office. The Victim's Compensation Program: The Victim's Compensation Program, administered by the Division of Victim and Justice Services, is designed to assist persons and crime survivors who suffer personal injury or death, caused by criminal conduct which occurred on or after August 13, 1987. Under North Carolina law, the victim, his/her survivors, or a legal representative may file a claim within two (2) years to receive compensation from this fund. www.nccrimecontrol.org/vms Who is eligible for Compensation? The victim, a dependant of a deceased victim, a person who is authorized to act on behalf of a victim or dependant, a third person who provided benefit to the victim of his/her family other than in the course or scope of his employment, business or profession. What may be compensated? The compensation program is designed to cover medical expenses, lost wages, and/or replacement services (i.e. childcare expenses). A maximum of $30,000 may be paid for any award except when the victim dies as a result of the crime. In that case, an additional $3,500 may be paid to survivors for funeral expenses. The District Attorney's Responsibilities to Victims: The District Attorney's office will notify you, if you wish, of information concerning court proceedings.

VICTIM'S RIGHTS CONTINUED

The District Attorney's office will provide you the opportunity to talk with the attorney prosecuting the case, before the case is disposed, about your views of the disposition of the case. The District Attorney's office will provide you a secure waiting area during court proceedings, if at all possible and practical. The District Attorney's office will, prior to disposing of the case, offer you the right to make a statement telling the sentencing judge the impact this case has had on you. The District Attorney's office will notify you in writing about what has happened in your case within thirty (30) days of the final proceeding. If the defendant appeals the verdict, the District Attorney's office will forward to the Attorney General's office the appropriate information about you so they can inform you on how the appellate process works. SAVAN - Statewide Automated Victim Assistance and Notification SAVAN is a free, anonymous, computer-based telephone program that provides victims of crime with two important services: information and notification. The SAVAN program is designed to provide you with a quick easy access to offender information and to alert you when an offender's custody status changes. Do not depend solely on SAVAN or any other program for your safety. SAVAN is a new program and may not be available in all North Carolina counties. For more information visit SAVAN's website at www.ncsavan.org

COUNTY INFORMATION

Established in 1842, Union County is one of the fastest growing counties in the State of North Carolina. It provides a unique blend of rural and metropolitan lifestyles. While having vast areas of nature untouched by development, it also has areas flourishing in suburban and industrial growth. The primary factors contributing to Union's economic growth are agriculture, business and industry. Situated in the south central piedmont area of North Carolina, the county's population is estimated at 193,000 with approximately 64 square miles of land area.

WHERE DO I GO TO SWEAR OUT A WARRANT?

The Magistrate's Office located on Presson Road. Follow the directions on front to the Sheriff's Office. A Magistrate is on duty 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

WILL THE SHERIFF'S OFFICE SERVE PAPERS FOR ME?

Absolutely! There is no charge for Criminal Papers. There may be a charge for some civil process papers. Your first step in the civil process (lawsuits, evictions, etc.) is to go to the Clerk of Courts Office located in the Courthouse, and fill out the appropriate forms for the type of civil paper you need. There is a fee which is payable to the Clerk's Office, varying in cost depending on the type of paper and the number of people to be served. Assistance with the filing is available from the Clerk. Once the paper is filled out and filed with the Clerk's Office, it is automatically sent to the Sheriff's Office for service. The paper will be served as expeditiously as possible, but successful service is dependant on the accuracy and amount of information you provide, such as the current address and place of employment of the person to be served.
